

Tender Schedules

Preface

The GC21 (Edition 2) Tender Schedules contains the returnable Schedules selected for this RFT. The Conditions of Tendering detail which Schedules are required. Schedules that are not required have been deleted.

To reduce tendering costs, the Schedules are divided into those to be submitted with the Tender and those that must be submitted by notified tenderers when requested.

Do not change the wording in the Schedules unless required by the relevant document.

In completing the Schedules, assume that the Principal has no previous knowledge of your organisation, its activities or experience.

Do not include advertising, product or company information or marketing brochures or presentations other than those expressly requested.

Queries with regard to completing the Schedules should be directed to the Contact Officer via the Principal's nominated online forum.

Ensure each Schedule is completed prior to submission.

18 Schedule of Dealing with Modern Slavery

(SUBMIT WHEN REQUESTED)

1 Meanings:

Modern slavery risks	means the potential for a Contractor to cause, contribute to, or be directly linked to modern slavery through its operations and supply chains.
Operations:	means any activity or business relationship undertaken to pursue the Contractor's business objectives and strategy. This includes research and development, construction, production, arrangements with suppliers, distribution, purchasing, marketing, sales, provision and delivery of services, financial lending, and investments.
Supply chains	means the products and services (including labour) that contribute to the Contractor's business' own products and services. This includes the products and services sourced in Australia, or overseas, and extends beyond the contractor's direct suppliers.
Contractors & Tenderers	References to Contractors & Tenderers in this Schedule are generally interchangeable as the applicable actions and responsibilities can occur in different stages of the procurement process.

2 General:

The term 'modern slavery' is used to describe situations where adults and children are exploited because they have been coerced, threatened or deceived. It describes situations where a person's freedom and dignity have been taken away. The term is defined in section 5 of the Modern Slavery Act 2018(NSW). Modern Slavery refers to a range of serious crimes, including:

- Slavery, servitude, forced labour, deceptive recruiting for labour or services, forced marriage;
- trafficking in persons, trafficking in children;
- debt bondage;
- sexual servitude;
- forced child marriage;
- the use of a child in the production of child abuse material and related offences; or
- the slavery, servitude or forced labour of a child.

It could be:

- A cleaner in an office who is unable to stop working due to threats of violence from their employer.
- A young brick layer who is coerced into taking a job on a dangerous site, paid very little, and required to live on site.
- A migrant worker in a factory who has not received any wages while they work to repay an exorbitant debt owed for their recruitment.

More information on the Modern Slavery Act (NSW) 2018 and Modern Slavery Amendment Act 2021 can be found at: <https://www.nsw.gov.au/modern-slavery>

The nature and extent of modern slavery means that there is a risk that it is present in a Contractor's operations and supply chains. The implementation of processes to eliminate or minimise the risk of the goods or services supplied being products of modern slavery is an opportunity for Contractors to use their influence and purchasing power to create genuine change.

Additionally, the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights requires all businesses to undertake human rights due diligence to prevent and address the adverse human rights impacts linked to their business activities. Human rights due diligence is an ongoing process of identifying and assessing human rights impacts, acting upon the business' findings, tracking the response, and sharing the results.

3 Principal's Commitment

The Principal is committed to taking all reasonable steps to ensure that the goods and services procured by Council are not the product of modern slavery. The Principal has a legal and ethical obligation for considering, identifying, managing and reporting on modern slavery risks within the Principal's supply chains in accordance with the Modern Slavery Act (NSW) 2018 and Modern Slavery Amendment Act 2021.

4 Declaration of Compliance
